

David Berens

Technology Implementation Consultant

David Berens, technology implementation consultant for Mission Facilitators International, focuses on taking the technological pulse of an organization in order to provide progressive and innovative input that refines and refocuses the organizations' trajectory.

His professional competencies centralize around:

- Concept Development and Implementation
- Organizational Technology Assessment
- Technology Training

David has invented a software application that focuses on employee performance, employee motivation, and project management. As a primary contributor to the conceptual development of the software, he projects that the software application will reach the market by 2011.

His clients include: Van Andel Research Institute, Global Advantage, and The Harp Foundation.